ABOUT COVENTRY BIENNIAL

Coventry Biennial was founded in 2017 as an artist-led, strategic response to the city publishing a 10 year cultural strategy and the bid to become UK City of Culture.

Our vision and mission is to make:

Contemporary art exhibitions, initiatives & collaborations of social relevance
With Coventry, its neighbours & beyond
Activating spaces, exchanges & experiences

We aim to:

– CONNECT people, groups and places in unique and meaningful ways, increasing engagement with contemporary art and the unique context of the local area.

– MAKE work with artists and communities that is ambitious, innovative and high quality, building on the city's craft and manufacturing heritage.

– DEVELOP the local sector and scene to grow, becoming more diverse, dynamic and sustainable, learning from the city's art history while fostering new talent and initiatives.

To do this we support and present socially, politically and critically engaged art in Coventry and Warwickshire to local, national and international audiences.

...like a short cut through the brambles

... like a short cut through the brambles will take place from 6 October 2023 until January 2024 in Coventry and Warwickshire.

Across Coventry Biennial 2023 artists and their many collaborators interrogate humankind's relationship to the world around us. Starting with the broad themes of place, the human condition and the intersection of these, the fourth Coventry Biennial will present a series of exhibitions, events and activities in museums, galleries, historic buildings and public locations.

... like a short cut through the brambles is collaboratively curated by Ryan Hughes, Anneka French and Dr Ian Sergeant with support from Emily Gardner and curators from our partner venues.

We are delighted to introduce the Coventry Biennial 2023 artists:

A History of Frogs, Can Altay, Ania Bas, Phoebe Boswell, Alice Channer, Jo Gane, Clémence Lollia Hilaire, Seungwon Jung, Yva Jung, Dinh Q. Lê, Paul Lemmon and Graeme Macdonald, Rene Matić, Mothers Who Make and Alice Wood, Jem Southam, Janet Tryner.
